NOTICE.

The Saturday Review, the weekly edition of the News Review, is issued today with complete details of the murder of Mrs. Robison and Willie Geisse. If you want your friends at a distance to know all there is to know of these shocking tragedies, send them the Saturday Review. Copies can be secured at the business office of the News Review.

FIRST DEGREE MURDER

Robison Must Answer to the Court.

THEY LET MALONE OFF EASIER

His Indictment Is For Murder In the Second Degree—The Grand Jury Wound Up Its Business Today, and as Usual Condemned the Jail.

Lisbon, April 30. —[Special.]—The grand jury completed its work this afternoon, and the report made to the court is among the most interesting ever returned in this county.

Testimony in the Robison case was taken until a late hour, it having been found necessary to defer the hearing until the arrival of several witnesses from Pittsburg this morning. Among the 13 indictments returned today was a true bill against Z. S. Robison for murder in the first degree. The indictment contains two counts, one specifying the shooting of Mrs. Robison at East Liverpool last Saturday night, and the other stating that the wound was made upon the head with some instrument stated to be by the grand jurors unknown.

Patrick Malone, who was brought here from Wellsville under a similar charge a few days ago, was indicted for murder in the second degree.

The men have not yet been informed of the action of the grand jury. Robison continues to worry a great deal about the crime, and looks as though he would die from terror. His face is haggard, and his clothes hang loosely upon him. Malone is taking the matter very coolly, and spends his time in jail reading. He has very little to say.

EASY FOR THE BOYS.

They Were Only Charged With Assault and Battery.

John Estell, Ralph Duell and Frank Suffel, who were arrested for assaulting a companion were indicted for assault and battery.

The jury reported 13 indictments, the remainder being for infractions of the liquor law. The jail was visited and condemned, the commissioners being urged to take some action regarding the old well, and to remove the cause of the dampness and foul smell in the basement cells. Sheriff Gill was highly commended. Twenty cases were considered, and 125 witnesses examined.

A PRETTY GOOD WEEK.

The Weather Report Is a Little More Favorable.

The weekly crop bulletin has this to say of conditions in this section of Ohio: "The week's weather was marked by a slight deficiency of temperature, very little precipitation and a considerable excess of sunshine. The average maximum temperature for all stations was 62 degrees; average minimum, 37, giving a mean of 52, which is two degrees less than normal. The normal precipitation for this section is .60 of an inch for the period considered, while the amount recorded during the week amounts to but .13 of an inch. The duration of sunshine was 60 per cent of what would have been possible with a continually clear sky, being 7 per cent in excess of the normal. Freezing temperatures, producing frost and ice, occurred on the first three nights of the week, causing some damage to young clover, wheat and other tender vegetation, and seriously retarding all plant growth."

ANOTHER AVONDALE KICK.

Teamsters Who Drive on the Sidewalks Will Be Arrested.

The residents of Avondale street have become tired of teamsters using their pavements for a roadway, and are now keeping a list of the people who violate the ordinance. Complaint will be entered before Mayor Gilbert in the near future, as it is the determination of the property owners to see that the practice is stopped. The pavements were laid at great expense and are rapidly being destroyed.

SOME BASEBALL NEWS.

The Professionals Won the Game Yesterday.

The ball game yesterday between the amateurs and professionals was largely attended, and resulted in an easy victory for the professionals, but had Turner been given the proper support, the score might have been different. The score:

Professionals	6	1	0	0	1	1	4	3	*	16	9	6
Amateurs	2	0	2	0	0	0	1	1	2	8	7	10

Batteries—Professionals—McShane, Howard and Finch; Amateurs—Turner, McCorran and Davis. Umpire—Salisbury.

The teams will meet again Saturday afternoon.

The game between the ushers and stage hands has been postponed indefinitely.

The employees of Sebring's and Cartwright's will play ball next Thursday. The Phoenix club and high school teams will try it next week.

Winnie Mercer yesterday won his first game of the season by holding the Boston team down to eight hits.

Tim Twaddle left last night for Allegheny, N. Y., where he will join the Auburn team. Lynch left this morning for the same place for the same purpose. A large crowd of the big player's admirers were at the station last evening to bid him goodbye.

AN OLD LADY

Attempted to End Her Life In the Ohio.

Mrs. George Coles, aged 60 years, of Georgetown, yesterday morning attempted to commit suicide. A small boy was rowing her across the river in a skiff, and when they reached the middle of the stream Mrs. Coles jumped overboard. The boy started to row to shore, but some person called for him to go back. When he reached the spot where Mrs. Coles had jumped overboard she had changed her mind and caught hold of the skiff with a will, and kept herself afloat until help was secured. This is the second time the lady has attempted to take her life, but the last time she tried morphine.

SELECTED MR. TAYLER.

President McKinley Wanted to Send Our Congressman to Cuba.

The Washington correspondent of the Cleveland Leader says that when Judge Day was selected for assistant secretary of state the president called Hon. R. W. Tayler to the White House and told him he had been chosen special commissioner to Cuba. Mr. Tayler accepted the place, provided it was deemed advisable to send a member of congress. He held that it might not upon mature deliberation be thought best to appoint a man already connected with the government. Secretary Sherman decided with Mr. Tayler, and another man, not a congressman, was chosen.

SIXTEEN YEARS AGO

The Locusts Last Visited This Section.

A dispute arose one day this week among the employees of a leading pottery as to the date of the last destructive visit of the 17 year locusts to this part of the world, and it was decided to have the matter settled by the News Review. The matter has been carefully investigated, and old residents of this section say that 16 years ago they were here in force, and they will not soon be forgotten. According to that they are due here next year.

WILL STAND BY THE CLUB.

McKinley Members Will Settle Its Business Affairs.

The McKinley club met last evening in the office of Squire E. W. Hill, a large number of members being present. The affairs of the club were thoroughly discussed, and it was decided to stand with the old organization. Arrangements for the future were left in the hands of the trustees, who will meet Monday evening to transact all business concerning the club. Another meeting of the club will be held next Thursday evening.

LIVERPOOL WON

In a Nice Little Shoot In Wellsville.

The gun shoot held yesterday afternoon in Wellsville resulted in victory for East Liverpool men. In the 50 bird match Ambrose Webber and Rev Foutts were tied for first place with 35 birds each. The same men were tied in two sweepstakes of ten birds each with nine birds apiece. Parke won the third sweepstake with nine birds, while Foutts got eight. The local club will hold a shoot next week across the river.

Filed a Lien.

Robert Litten this morning filed a landlord's lien with Justice Hill against Peter Flash for possession of a house in West End.

OLD TANYARD'S SEWER

Council Viewed the Place and Talked a Little.

DOCTOR MARSHALL'S NICE PLAN

Would Probably Land the Whole Body In Jail, and It Was Abandoned as Too Dangerous—The Last Proposition of the Pennsylvania Company.

All members of council, except President Peach and Mr. Ashbaugh, assembled last evening to take observations looking to the unraveling of the Tanyard run muddle. They were accompanied by Engineer George and Solicitor Grosshans, and when they arrived at Eighth street Ex-Councilman Peake became a member of the party.

Doctor Marshall was the first man to ask a question, and he wanted to know what would happen if council would engage a large force of men and finish the culvert in one night. The solicitor replied that council would probably all go to jail, and the plan was dismissed as not being advisable. Ex-Councilman Peake thought it would be a good plan to make the railroad company run their trains through the city at four miles per hour until they were ready to give up their claim on the culvert. Solicitor Grosshans submitted the latest proposition of the railroad company, whereby they agree to pay for the sewer now being built and give $500 toward extending it to a point 100 feet east of West Market street. The probable cost of the sewer is $8,000, of which the company pays $2,100 and gives the city two years in which to build the sewer. Mr. Marshall wanted to know where the city would get the money, and Mr. Stewart thought it would be a wise idea to submit it to the property owners. Mr. Marshall said the largest part of the job would come after this sewer was finished as it would have to be continued to the river. Council then viewed the upper end of the place and the proposed line, but adjourned without coming to any conclusion, but if expression counts for anything their several thinking apparatuses were working double turn.

MUST HAVE BEEN LOST.

Township Trustees Know Nothing of Dr. Beane's Bid.

The township trustees when seen this morning in regard to the reported trouble between them and the physicians, stated that if Dr. W. F. Beane had offered to do the work for $185 they had never received a bid from him to that effect, and the infirmity directors also make the same statement. After his bid was sent it must have been lost on the way. It begins to look as though the county doctor would be abolished, and each township be compelled to have one of its own.

NOT HEALTHY FOR SPIES.

Jacksonville People Have Warned the Agents of Spain.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Surles returned last night from Jacksonville, Fla., where they went last fall in the hope of improving the lady's health. Mr. Surles is somewhat better.

Mr. Surles says that the sympathy for Cuba has by no means died out in the south. They still hate the Spaniards. Not long ago he stepped into a cigar store in Jacksonville, and saw these words printed on a huge piece of cardboard: "This not a healthy place for Spanish spies."

THINKS IT SHOULD BE STOPPED.

But the Law Allows the Dehorning of Cattle.

The Humane society has recently had numerous complaints from this city and Lisbon about people dehorning cattle, and many persons think it should be stopped. Humane Agent Lloyd this morning said although it was a thing that should be stopped the society was powerless to do anything in the matter, as the state law permits it. The society has numerous other complaints on their hands, but none which cannot easily be remedied.

FRESHMAN DAY.

Interesting Exercises at the High School This Afternoon.

This was freshman day in the high school, and interesting exercises were conducted by members of the class. The room was appropriately decorated in maroon and white, the class colors, and a star, with the class motto, "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star," occupied a prominent position. The literary productions were of a high order, and were enjoyed to a great degree by the visitors and students.

Heavy Travel.

Officials of the Pittsburg and Cincinnati

nati packet company anticipate a prosperous season. Passenger traffic has already assumed such proportions as to make the prospect gratifying in the extreme. Every boat for several weeks has carried excursion parties.

A WONDERFUL CONVENTION.

Secretary Charles Has Been Having a Good Time In the South.

Secretary Charles has sent the following letter to the members of the Astor club:

"One of the most wonderful conventions in the history of the Young Men's Christian association closed last Sunday evening, 512 delegates being present. I reached Selma yesterday at 3 o'clock. This is a pleasant little town of 10,000. People are most cordial, opening their homes and hearts to us. I tell you I never knew what the southern people are until I came here. We were welcomed something like this: 'All we have is yours, our homes, our hearts and our cities. If you don't see what you want, ask for it.' We have all been entertained by Confederates, but how pleasant they are. We all met as brothers. Last night we sang 'Dixie Land,' 'Marching Through Georgia,' and 'America,' all uniting, Federals and Confederates. I have many interesting things to tell you when I return. Looking forward to seeing you with much pleasure, may the blessing of God be with you all. Yours, 'WM. H. CHARLES.'"

GOT WHAT HE WANTED.

A Neat Exhibition of Nerve In a Drug Store.

This morning a well dressed young man walked into an uptown drug store. The clerk was behind the prescription case, and as soon as possible walked out to wait on the young man and asked him if there was anything he wanted. The young man replied that he would take a smoke, and coolly picked up a toby and walked out, leaving the astonished clerk speechless at such an unusual quantity of nerve.

FOOLED THE OFFICERS.

The Occupant of a House Discreetly Locked the Door.

Several days ago a judgment was given by Squire Manley in the forcible detention case of Reed versus Ladjinski, and Constable Lyon moved the defendant out of the house and it was rented to another party, who, when the goods arrived, found Ladjinski still occupying the house with the door locked. The constable will now be compelled to move the gentleman once more before peace can be restored.

OFFERED A REWARD

For the Return of a Stolen Horse and Buggy.

The chief of police of Youngstown has notified the local authorities to keep a watch for a horse and buggy, that was stolen from that city last Saturday. The animal and buggy are fully described in the card, and a reward of $50 is offered for their return. Dr. W. H. McGranaghan is the owner.

Hurt His Leg.

Tom Stafford, a brakeman on the Cleveland and Pittsburg pony, had his right leg badly hurt yesterday at the Horn switch. The engine ran into a wagon owned by the East Liverpool pottery, and Stafford was in the front end of the engine when the accident occurred. His home is in Wellsville.

Some of the Sick.

John Bailey, stable boss at the ice plant, is laid up with a large carbuncle on his back. He had an operation performed yesterday, and is now improving. Mrs. Rebecca Weibel, of College street, who has been quite sick of late, is improving.

Didn't Hurt Him.

A drunken Italian attempted to board the evening train east at Wellsville last night after it was well under way, and falling came near being thrown under the wheels. The train was stopped, and the man still drunk, taken into a car. He was not hurt.

A Big Day.

Yesterday was a big day at the freight station. The pony was kept in the local yards until late in the evening, and it is estimated over 200 cars were handled. In the outbound sheds there were loaded 22 cars.

Must Remove the Straw.

For some time a quantity of straw has been stored on the rear of the old opera house in Second street. Today the owner was ordered to have it moved as fire is feared.

To Be Entertained.

The Flabbergasters will be entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Edna Simms.

GOT A COUNTERFEITER

He Has Been Here In Jail Several Weeks.

WAS WANTED DOWN THE RIVER

Cincinnati Authorities Heard of His Arrest, and Notified Mayor Gilbert to Hold Him Until They Could Claim Him. He Was Taken to Parkersburg.

Deputy United States Marshal Keller, of Cleveland, was in the city last night. He spent but a short time here, and then took the Ben Hur for Wheeling. With him was Arthur Winnings, alias Cole Hassin, a supposed counterfeiter, who has been locked up in the city jail since April 17.

Winnings has but one arm, and when the officials of Cincinnati heard of his arrest they wrote Mayor Gilbert to make a close investigation of the man and send them particulars. This was done. The Parkersburg authorities were then notified as to Winnings, who they thought was one of a gang of counterfeiters who escaped from that place some time ago. The description sent over the country from Parkersburg tallied with the local man, and consequently he was detained, with the above result.

Just as Winnings was about to leave the mayor's office he turned around and said to the mayor:

"Say, Mr. Gilbert, if my mother comes here give her my best, will you?" "Who is your mother?" said the United States official.

"Well, you certainly have your nerve with you," said Winnings.

The mayor promised to do so, and that was the last seen of Arthur. The Parkersburg officers have had a lot of trouble with these men, and three are now being held at Steubenville awaiting papers for their return to West Virginia.

Soon after this excitement was over Officers Moore, Whan and Terrence brought to the bastille Daniel and Ike Gourley, Chip Gamble and a Mr. Stewart, of Georgetown. These gentlemen were found sleeping on a lot of hay stored in the rear of the old opera house, and all were charged with being drunk and trespassing.

While the officers were looking for Gamble's hat they discovered what they thought was an old shoe, but investigation proved it had an owner, and in that manner the Gourley boys were caught. At the hearing today each got $6.00, but not having the price of freedom, all were returned to jail.

Mr. Barton, residing near the Dresden, pulled box 224 at 6:30 this morning, and the fire department responded promptly. It was a sad mistake for George Barton, as he wanted the patrol to arrest his brother-in-law, Jim Sharp. Jim was taken to jail, but released, as no charge was recorded.

Still at It.

The water works inspectors this morning shut off 15 taps. This makes a total of over 100 taps that have been found leaking since the inspectors began their work. They will close their labors this evening until Monday morning.

On the River.

The river is now falling, and has reached the 6.10 foot mark. Down—Ben Hur. Up—Lorena, Bedford, Jos. Cook, Percy Kelsey, Virginia. The latter boat had a very small freight trip, but the passenger list was quite large.

Sermons of Labor.

All of the ministers of the city will on Sunday preach one sermon on labor, in answer to a request made by Trades council. Several unions will attend church as organizations.

The Handlebars Turned.

The handlebars of a wheel ridden by W. H. Colclough this morning slipped downward, throwing the rider to the ground. Aside from a few scratches, the rider escaped injury.

Rolling Stock Coming.

The rolling stock for the Chester street railway is expected to arrive the latter part of next week. The cars are spacious, and are said to be the finest in this section.

Homeseekers' Excursions.

You can find out all about them by applying to nearest ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines or by addressing D. C. MacWatters, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Talk About Rules.

The board of education will meet this evening, and among other things the new rules will be discussed.

—Edward Way, of New York, is in the city on business.

NOTICE.

The Saturday Review, the weekly edition of the News Review, is issued today with complete details of the murder of Mrs. Robison and Willie Geisse. If you want your friends at a distance to know all there is to know of these shocking tragedies, send them the Saturday Review. Copies can be secured at the business office of the News Review.

Robison Must Answer to the Court.

THEY LET MALONE OFF EASIER

His Indictment Is For Murder In the Second Degree—The Grand Jury Wound Up Its Business Today, and as Usual Condemned the Jail.

Lisbon, April 30. (Special.)—The grand jury completed its work this afternoon, and the report made to the court is among the most interesting ever returned in this county.

Testimony in the Robison case was taken until a late hour, it having been found necessary to defer the hearing until the arrival of several witnesses from Pittsburgh this morning. Among the 13 indictments returned today was a true bill against Z. S. Robison for murder in the first degree. The indictment contains two counts, one specifying the shooting of Mrs. Robison at East Liverpool last Saturday night, and the other stating that the wound was made upon the head with some instrument stated to be by the grand jurors unknown.

The men have not yet been informed of the action of the grand jury. Robison continues to worry a great deal about the crime, and looks as though he would die from terror. His face is haggard, and his clothes hang loosely upon him. Malone is taking the matter very coolly, and spends his time in jail reading. He has very little to say.

EASY FOR THE BOYS.

They Were Only Charged With Assault and Battery.

John Estell, Ralph Duell and Frank Suffel, who were arrested for assaulting a companion were indicted for assault and battery.

The jury reported 13 indictments, the remainder being for infractions of the liquor law. The jail was visited and condemned, the commissioners being urged to take some action regarding the old well, and to remove the cause of the dampness and foul smell in the basement cells. Sheriff Gill was highly commended. Twenty cases were considered, and 125 witnesses examined.

A PRETTY GOOD WEEK.

Secretary Charles has sent the following letter to the members of the Astor club:

"One of the most wonderful conventions in the history of the Young Men's Christian association closed last Sunday evening, 512 delegates being present. I reached Selma yesterday at 3 o'clock. This is a pleasant little town of 10,000. People are most cordial, opening their homes and hearts to us. I tell you I never knew what the southern people are until I came here. We were welcomed something like this: 'All we have is yours, our homes, our hearts and our cities. If you don't see what you want, ask for it.' We have all been entertained by Confederates, but how pleasant they are. We all met as brothers. Last night we sang 'Dixie Land,' 'Marching Through Georgia,' and 'America,' all uniting, Federals and Confederates. I have many interesting things to tell you when I return. Looking forward to seeing you with much pleasure, may the blessing of God be with you all. Yours, 'WM. H. CHARLES.'"

A Neat Exhibition of Nerve In a Drug Store.

This morning a well dressed young man walked into an uptown drug store. The clerk was behind the prescription case, and as soon as possible walked out to wait on the young man and asked him if there was anything he wanted. The young man replied that he would take a smoke, and coolly picked up a toby and walked out, leaving the astonished clerk speechless at such an unusual quantity of nerve.

FOOLED THE OFFICERS.

The Occupant of a House Discreetly Locked the Door.

Several days ago a judgment was given by Squire Manley in the forcible detention case of Reed versus Ladjinski, and Constable Lyon moved the defendant out of the house and it was rented to another party, who, when the goods arrived, found Ladjinski still occupying the house with the door locked. The constable will now be compelled to move the gentleman once more before peace can be restored.

For the Return of a Stolen Horse and Buggy.

The chief of police of Youngstown has notified the local authorities to keep a watch for a horse and buggy, that was stolen from that city last Saturday. The animal and buggy are fully described in the card, and a reward of $50 is offered for their return. Dr. W. H. McGranaghan is the owner.

Hurt His Leg.

Tom Stafford, a brakeman on the Cleveland and Pittsburgh pony, had his right leg badly hurt yesterday at the Horn switch. The engine ran into a wagon owned by the East Liverpool pottery, and Stafford was in the front end of the engine when the accident occurred. His home is in Wellsville.

Some of the Sick.

John Bailey, stable boss at the ice plant, is laid up with a large carbuncle on his back. He had an operation performed yesterday, and is now improving. Mrs. Rebecca Weibel, of College street, who has been quite sick of late, is improving.

Didn't Hurt Him.

A drunken Italian attempted to board the evening train east at Wellsville last night after it was well under way, and falling came near being thrown under the wheels. The train was stopped, and the man still drunk, taken into a car. He was not hurt.

A Big Day.

Yesterday was a big day at the freight station. The pony was kept in the local yards until late in the evening, and it is estimated over 200 cars were handled. In the outbound sheds there were loaded 22 cars.

Must Remove the Straw.

For some time a quantity of straw has been stored on the rear of the old opera house in Second street. Today the owner was ordered to have it moved as fire is feared.

To Be Entertained.

The Flabbergasters will be entertained Saturday afternoon by Miss Edna Simms.

GOT A COUNTERFEITER

He Has Been Here In Jail Several Weeks.

WAS WANTED DOWN THE RIVER

Cincinnati Authorities Heard of His Arrest, and Notified Mayor Gilbert to Hold Him Until They Could Claim Him. He Was Taken to Parkersburg.

Deputy United States Marshal Keller, of Cleveland, was in the city last night. He spent but a short time here, and then took the Ben Hur for Wheeling. With him was Arthur Winnings, alias Cole Hassin, a supposed counterfeiter, who has been locked up in the city jail since April 17.

Winnings has but one arm, and when the officials of Cincinnati heard of his arrest they wrote Mayor Gilbert to make a close investigation of the man and send them particulars. This was done. The Parkersburg authorities were then notified as to Winnings, who they thought was one of a gang of counterfeiters who escaped from that place some time ago. The description sent over the country from Parkersburg tallied with the local man, and consequently he was detained, with the above result.

Just as Winnings was about to leave the mayor's office he turned around and said to the mayor:

"Say, Mr. Gilbert, if my mother comes here give her my best, will you?" "Who is your mother?" said the United States official.

"Well, you certainly have your nerve with you," said Winnings.

The mayor promised to do so, and that was the last seen of Arthur. The Parkersburg officers have had a lot of trouble with these men, and three are now being held at Steubenville awaiting papers for their return to West Virginia.

Soon after this excitement was over Officers Moore, Whan and Terrence brought to the bastille Daniel and Ike Gourley, Chip Gamble and a Mr. Stewart, of Georgetown. These gentlemen were found sleeping on a lot of hay stored in the rear of the old opera house, and all were charged with being drunk and trespassing.

While the officers were looking for Gamble's hat they discovered what they thought was an old shoe, but investigation proved it had an owner, and in that manner the Gourley boys were caught. At the hearing today each got $6.00, but not having the price of freedom, all were returned to jail.

Mr. Barton, residing near the Dresden, pulled box 224 at 6:30 this morning, and the fire department responded promptly. It was a sad mistake for George Barton, as he wanted the patrol to arrest his brother-in-law, Jim Sharp. Jim was taken to jail, but released, as no charge was recorded.

SUB at It.

The water works inspectors this morning shut off 15 taps. This makes a total of over 100 taps that have been found leaking since the inspectors began their work. They will close their labors this evening until Monday morning.

On the River.

The river is now falling, and has reached the 6.10 foot mark. Down—Ben Hur. Up—Lorena, Bedford, Jos. Cook, Percy Kelsey, Virginia. The latter boat had a very small freight trip, but the passenger list was quite large.

Sermons of Labor.

All of the ministers of the city will on Sunday preach one sermon on labor, in answer to a request made by Trades council. Several unions will attend church as organizations.

The Handlebars Turned.

The handlebars of a wheel ridden by W. H. Colclough this morning slipped downward, throwing the rider to the ground. Aside from a few scratches, the rider escaped injury.

Rolling Stock Coming.

The rolling stock for the Chester street railway is expected to arrive the latter part of next week. The cars are spacious, and are said to be the finest in this section.

Home-seekers' Excursions.

You can find out all about them by applying to nearest ticket agent of the Pennsylvania lines or by addressing D. C. MacWatters, district passenger agent, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Talk About Rules.

The board of education will meet this evening, and among other things the new rules will be discussed.

—Edward Way, of New York, is in the city on business.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., FRIDAY, APRIL 30.

UNION LABEL

THE RIVERS OF KANSAS, like the heads

and expense accounts of its statesmen,

are prone to swell. One rose 25 feet in 24 hours the other day.

It is but reasonable to believe that the Ohio people who think they have seen the airship belong to the few who suppose

Johnny McLean will be the next senator. Delusions, like troubles, seldom come singly.

When Cleveland becomes a presidential candidate again, he should bring his old friend Bayard across the water to stump in his behalf. Bayard could tell

with such touching pathos how pleased

the dear people of London would be to see their old ally back in the White House.

The importers are not idle. They know the time when they can make

hay, and they are preparing to reap their harvest. Every day of delay in the passage of the tariff law is to them

a precious time of utmost exertion, for

it means bright and shining golden dollars before this thing is all over.

The determination of the state board of health to investigate the water supply

of Ohio towns and cities is wisdom of the practical sort. When the people

once know what danger lies concealed in the water they drink, not many years

will pass before every water system in the state is improved by some plan for filtration.

PETITIONS bearing thousands of names

are pouring into Washington asking that some action looking to the restriction of immigration be taken without unnecessary delay. That is a question

too big to be downed in a hurry. Its successful solution means so much to this country that until it is satisfactorily

settled men with brains will battle for its consideration.

DEMOCRATS ARE RESPONSIBLE.

The Republicans do not control the senate, and any evil resulting from the failure of that body to enact the Dingley tariff bill must be laid at the feet of those Democratic obstructionists who,

it seems, would prefer to see their constituents in rage with the Wilson bill

than to see them arrayed in purple and fine linen under a protective law. To them belongs the responsibility, and to them alone. They have it in their power to allow the passage of the measure or bring about its defeat. Since prosperity cannot return without protection it is evident that the outcome rests

not with the senate and the administration, but with the Democrats, who have to a degree far too injurious for the average American, already demonstrated their ability to produce and maintain a state of national and individual poverty.

AN INCONSISTENCY.

It is with decided poor grace that the Lisbon Patriot at this time acknowledges the poverty of the people and advocates the reduction of the salaries of county officials. Never until it became affected with the stain of free silver-

ism did the Patriot think of poverty.

Under the glowing light of its stuffed prophet it promised the acme of prosperity during the Cleveland administration. It never would admit the word poverty then, yet the Patriot knows, or

is most ignorant if it does not, that the farmers get more for their wool today

than they did two years ago, that several thousand more men are employed in Columbiana county today than when the darkness of its Democratic administration filled the land with suffering and starvation. It seems there is ample room for the suspicion that the Patriot

is not sincere, that its cry of reduction

in taxes and salaries for county officers

is simply a campaign utterance because the boot now happens to be on the other leg. Poor Patriot, it is always getting its foot into it.

BAYARD GOT THAT LOG.

But the Ex-Ambassador Almost Lost the Honor.

LONDON, April 30.—The log of the Mayflower has been formally handed over to Thomas F. Bayard, the former United States ambassador to the court of St. James in the diningroom of the bishop of London's official residence.

The reading of the legal record developed a surprise. After citing the application of Mr. Bayard and the decision of the court to hand him the log for personal conveyance to Boston, the chancellor continued, saying that on April 10, Henry White, the secretary of the United States embassy, made an application that the log be delivered to Colonel John Hay, the new ambassador to the court of St. James, for delivery to the president of the United States,
who would forward it to the proper quarters, as, on his return from the continent, Mr. Bayard would no longer be the United States ambassador.

Mr. White, however, was informed that in order to do this a formal application must be made to the court. To this Mr. White replied that he would leave the affair in the chancellor's hands to be dealt with as he deemed it right. Continuing, the chancellor said:
"The matter was duly considered, but it was concluded that it would not be in accordance with practice to alter the decree."

At the conclusion of the formalities
the bishop of London rose and spoke briefly, and Mr. Bayard replied in a formal manner. This concluded the ceremony.

THE JAPS' WARLIKE TALK.

Members of the Legation in Washington
Say There's Nothing in It.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The officials of the Japanese legation in this city expressed themselves in positive terms
as having no fear of internal complications between Japan and Hawaii or of the United States growing out of the differences between the first two countries on the immigration question.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30.—According to advices by steamer the Japanese government is aroused over the refusal of the Hawaiian government to permit Shinshou Marou immigrants to land there, and has ordered warships to Honolulu to enforce what the Japanese immigrants consider their rights.

Grave complications have arisen according to Japanese official newspapers
over the action of the United States government in sending the Philadelphia to Honolulu. Japanese official organs claim the cruiser has been sent as a menace to the Japanese government,
and is significant in that it foretells
annexation of the islands to the United States, Japanese official newspapers are full of war talk.

The Peddler Confessed.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., April 30.—The police have captured William Wilson, a traveling peddler, who confessed to being the robber who looted the general store of Ramsey Bros. at Portersville,
Butler county, Pa., last Friday night.
Property to the amount of $300 was carried away and brought to this city,
and has been recovered by the police of this city. The man was trailed to this city by a posse of Portersville citizens.

A. W. SCOTT, Architect.

To my patrons, and those contemplating building, permit me to state: I have made plans and constructed the building for more than three times the number of any other one Architect in this country. During my nine years practice in this city, and in each case
devoted careful study that I might not cause
you to expend one dollar where it was not required, and yet give you a building free
from cracked or settled walls, both interior
and exterior, free from unsightly cast iron plates on the side of your building, or cancerous "hog chains" extending down in your finished rooms to support a roof, as some are in this city, constructed by those professing to know better. I guarantee you a saving in each building of many times
what the plans cost you, and the most substantial of structure. We profit by other people's mistakes. We study. We are progressive. We put strength where it belongs.
It was the unlearned and illiterate Egyptians who constructed their buildings with 12 to 14 foot thick walls, regardless of size of building, because their forefathers did the same. Science has taught practical architects that necessity demands practical economy. We are up to date on any style building you want. Make your blue print copies of your plans. Type written specifications.
Duplicate or triplicate copies when desired.
Make your neat sketches of all contemplated
building, free of charge, as all first-class architects do. We charge you a reasonable compensation for our work, which we allow you to determine, while with some "half a loaf is better than none." Beware of the man who proposes to make your plans for nothing. Somebody's going to pay dear for them in the end. We are too busy to announce all the leading points on this subject.
We are completing the 2nd contract for plans
since January 1st. Call and see me.

To the Public.

I would call the attention of all persons contemplating building to the fact that it will be to their interest to see me, as I have cut my charges one-half; my present price
being three-fourths up to one and one-half per cent. of the cost of building and in some cases a fraction more. Having many years practice in contracting, building, drawing plans and specifications, and knowing the strength of all material and work, both by theory and practice, and therefore have no
need of measuring up other architects work.
I can guarantee all buildings I draw plans and specifications for, and superintend, to stand the test and the walls not crack and settle out of plumb as some specimens we have in this city have done.

Have been thronged with buyers ever since we opened.
Why? Because the ladies of East Liverpool and vicinity appreciate artistic work in millinery at popular prices, which we aim to do at all times. With us it is not a bunch of flowers, a bow of ribbons and some other prosaic arrangement on a hat, coupled with a high price. It is skill, tasted and large experience combined that create our hats,
which are made of the newest and best materials, although

A. W. SCOTT, Architect.

To my patrons, and those contemplating building, permit me to state: I have made plans and constructed the building for more than three times the number of any other one Architect in this county, during my nine years practice in this city, and in each case devoted careful study that I might not cause you to expend one dollar where it was not required, and yet give you a building free from cracked or settled walls, both interior and exterior, free from unsightly cast iron plates on the side of your building, or cumbersome "hog chains" extending down in your finished rooms to support a roof, as some are in this city, constructed by those professing to know better. I guarantee you a saving in each building of many times what the plans cost you, and the most substantial of structures. We profit by other people's mistakes. We study. We are progressive. We put strength where it belongs. It was the unlearned and illiterate Egyptians who constructed their buildings with 9 to 14 foot thick walls, regardless of size of building, because their forefathers did the same. Science has taught practical architects that necessity demands practical economy. We are up to date on any style building you want. Make you blue print copies of your plans. Type written specifications. Duplicate or triplicate copies when desired. Make you neat sketches of all contemplated building, free of charge, as all first class architects do. We charge you a reasonable compensation for our work, which we allow you to determine, while with some "half a loaf is better than none." Beware of the man who proposes to make your plans for nothing. Somebody's going to pay dear for them in the end. We are too busy to announce all the leading points on this subject. We are completing the 23d contract for plans since January, '95. Call and see me.

To the Public.

I would call the attention of all persons contemplating building to the fact that it will be to their interest to see me, as I have cut my charges one-half; my present price being three-fourths up to one and one-half per cent. of the cost of building and in some cases a fraction more. Having many years practice in contracting, building, drawing plans and specifications, and knowing the strength of all material and work, both by theory and practice, and therefore have no need of measuring up other architects work. I can guarantee all buildings I draw plans and specifications for, and superintend, to stand the test and the walls not crack and settle out of plumb as some specimens we have in this city have done.

Have been thronged with buyers ever since we opened. Why? Because the ladies of East Liverpool and vicinity appreciate artistic work in millinery at popular prices, which we aim to do at all times. With us it is not a bunch of flowers, a bow of ribbons and some other prosaic arrangement on a hat, coupled with a high price. It is skill, tasted and large experience combined that create our hats, which are made of the newest and best materials, although sold for than similar millinery can be purchased anywhere else. All our hats have different new ideas. Our ladies' furnishing line is well assorted, everything new and up-to-date, at prices lower than the lowest.

We will place on sale tomorrow a $5 silk shirt waist, in all colors, for only $3. A record breaker.

High Class Furnishing for Gentlemen.

CLAIM JONES' AID.

Democrats Say He Will Help Their Tariff Plan.

FAVORS INSPECTION OF THE BILL.

The Nevada Senator Said to Oppose Sending the Measure Direct to the Senate—A Futile Conference Over the Date to Report.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The senate finance committee has been in session, four Republicans and four Democrats being present, considering the tariff bill. The absentees were Platt (Rep., Conn.), Jones (Dem., Ark.) and Jones (Silver, Rep., Nev.). No conclusion of any kind regarding the bill was reached, although the Republicans said they hoped to be able to report the bill to the full committee on Monday. The Republicans asked that a time be fixed for reporting the bill to the senate, but the Democrats would not agree to fix a date, saying they wanted a reasonable time to consider the bill and that there would be no undue delay. The Democrats were not shown a copy of the bill, nor did they receive any information regarding its character.

The discussion was confined entirely to the proposition of the Republicans to permit the bill to be reported direct to the senate and the alternative proposition to consider it very briefly in committee. The Democrats declined the first suggestion, but said, with reference to the second, that they could make no reply until they should have an opportunity to see the bill. They stated, however, that under any circumstances they would expect to be given sufficient time to thoroughly examine the bill before consenting to its being reported. Beyond this they would ask nothing, as they would not seek unnecessarily to delay the bill for a day.

The Republicans stated their reason for making the request to be that they were much fatigued with their work in committee and admitted also that they were desirous of avoiding the opportunity to which they know they would be subjected when the contents of the bill should become known. They also stated that their work was not sufficiently advanced to permit the presentation of copies of the bill to the Democrats, but they vouchsafed no information in regard to changes beyond stating that they were generally in the line of reductions. The discussion was of a conversational character and was participated in by all the senators present.

The fact developed during the conference was that the Republicans did not feel absolutely assured of the vote of Senator Jones of Nevada in committee. On the other hand, the Democrats expressed confidence that he would stand with them, at least to the extent of seeing that they had time for consideration of the bill in committee. The Republican members of the finance committee do not accept with good grace the refusal of the Democrats to permit a spontaneous report of the tariff bill. They say that the position of the Democrats is unprecedented, the rule being to allow the majority to bring in and present its amended bill without effort on the part of the minority to change the result in committee.

There is a possibility that they may evade the demands by reporting the Dingley bill back to the senate without amendments whatever. This could be accomplished by the adoption of a resolution by the senate discharging the committee from the further consideration of the bill and ordering it to report it back. The advisability of adopting such a course as this was discussed somewhat by the Republican members of the finance committee after receiving the refusal of the Democrats. They say the amendments agreed upon by the Republican members could be presented from time to time in the senate and they feel that there would be one great advantage in this course in avoiding the necessity of getting the assent of Senator Jones of Nevada to every change made before presenting the bill. The Democratic members do not regard the outlook thus presented very seriously. They do not believe that the Republican members of the committee would take the responsibility of reporting the bill without a change, and pronounce the talk of such a course as a "bluff."

PERSIAN EMBASSY COMING.

Diplomatic Relations May Be Resumed With United States.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The state department has been advised by the United States minister to Persia that a royal embassy is now enroute to Washington upon an important mission, the precise nature of which is not yet known.

It is understood that the real object of the visit is to officially inform the president of the ascendancy to the throne of Persia of a new Shah to succeed to the vacancy created by the assassination of the former ruler.

It has been several years since the Persian government has had an accredited envoy to the United States, and the embassy is believed to come here with a view of resuming close diplomatic relations with Washington.

The last minister here excited much comment and was so persistently ridiculed that he left the country in haste without giving any reason therefor. It was said at the time that when he demanded of Secretary Blaine his passport the secretary asked why he was returning so unexpectedly, and the minister replied that he was being cartooned by the papers, made fun of, and that his dignity would not tolerate such treatment.

To this Mr. Blaine is reported to have replied that the president was subject to that. "He may be, but I don't suppose to be, and I shall leave your country."

Brief Sessions of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Both houses of congress adjourned till Monday after very brief sessions without transacting important business. In the senate several resolutions were agreed to, including the calling for any additional Cuban correspondence and another for information as to the cost of producing white pine lumber.

THE NAVAL MILITIA.

Captain Taylor's Advice on How to Improve the Service.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The navy department has begun the issue of the naval militia of a pamphlet containing a letter from Captain Taylor, president of the naval war college, upon the subject of the naval militia.

The war college last August took this matter under consideration at the direction of Assistant Secretary McAdoo, and the result is a commendable statement of the fields of usefulness and proper functions of the naval militia, touching which not only a number of naval officers but some of the militiamen themselves have been in doubt.

In a preface Mr. McAdoo says that he cannot speak too highly of the value of the paper and highly commends the conclusions reached by the war college. In substance these contemplate the transfer of the local defense to the naval militia.

While endorsing this suggestion, Mr. McAdoo protests against the national folly of not having on hand for the army and navy, and the militia on land and on sea a proper supply of reserve rifles of uniform make.

The United States, he says, should have at least 1,000,000 of such rifles and the necessary ammunition always in store, for in case of war the number on hand would be entirely inadequate, with no means quickly to procure more owing to the slowness of manufacture.

THE SENATE COMMITTEES.

Silver Republicans and Populists Will Be a Power in Many.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The Democratic steering committee of the senate has begun the work of assigning members to the various committees under the arrangement for a general reorganization of the senate committees. No permanent results were reached, but the indications point to the selection of Senator Turpie of Indiana to succeed Senator Voorhees as a member of the committee on finance and of Senator Chilton of Texas to succeed Senator Hill on the judiciary committee.

The Republican committee has almost completed its assignment under the reorganization program. In addition to the changes heretofore announced, it has been determined that Senator Kyle shall return to his old place as chairman of the committee on education and labor and that Senator Carter shall become chairman of the census committee to succeed Senator Chandler, who goes to privileges and elections.

Under the new system the silver Republicans will hold the balance of power in 14 committees and the Populists in 11. All parties expect to be ready to have the reorganization consummated next week.

THE MISSION TO CUBA.

Calhoun Will Take Day's Place, if His Wife's Health Permits.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—W. J. Calhoun, the lawyer of Danville, Ill., who has been selected by President McKinley to represent the United States at the Spanish investigation into the death of Dr. Ruiz, the American dentist, alleged to have been murdered in a Cuban prison, has accepted the appointment conditional upon the health of his wife, who has been ill, becoming sufficiently improved to permit him to leave this country.

Mr. Calhoun is now in Illinois engaged in arranging his private affairs so as to permit him to go to Cuba, and, unless his wife's health compels him to decline the post, will return to Washington next week preparatory to sailing for Havana.

A DESOLATE SCENE.

Canadian Valley, O. T., a Chaos of Ruined Homes.

THE DEATH LIST NUMBERS 20.

Many Spent the Night Clinging to Trees For Life—Rescued When Day Dawned. Many of the Missing Turned Up Alive. Many Farms Devastated.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 30.—Heroic efforts have been made in the flood stricken valley of the Cottonwood river toward the rescue of those unfortunate whose lives were still endangered, and for the relief of the hundreds of destitute and hungry. It seems a certainty that the loss of life in the deluge will not exceed 20.

Many of the missing people, supposed to have been drowned, have been found clinging to bushes or driftwood down the stream, on the west bluffs, or scattered in farmhouses for miles. Daylight found dozens of people still clinging to trees, overturned houses or timbers in perilous positions, which they had sustained all during the weary night. For miles along the scene of devastation 1,500 people homeless, half ill from exposure and hunger, passed a miserable night, and morning found most of them too weak to give much assistance either to themselves or others. The scene in the flood-swept district was one of desolation. The river fell rapidly during the night, and when the sun rose the extent of the damage done to property could be seen.

There was a confused mass of debris and overturned and demolished houses scattered over the valley. The banks were littered with the dead carcasses of farm animals. Whole blocks, where stood a home in nearly every lot, were stripped, and huge trees torn up by their roots were scattered everywhere.

Men had been put to work in lumberyards constructing boats, and dawn witnessed a dozen craft darting out from all directions to the rescue of the unfortunate. The work of the raftsmen proved most effective, and one by one the people were transported from their perilous positions to places of safety on land. Every house, drift pile and tree was closely examined in search of the dead. The family of Wesley McGill, reported yesterday as drowned, was found safe. The only bodies found were those of Mrs. Fannie Ruffin and five children, all lodged in a pile of driftwood. These, with George Owen, the butcher, drowned while rescuing others, Frank Myers, Mrs. Jane Watt, Mrs. Francis Moore, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Dennis and child and Mrs. Watson are the only identified dead, though many are still missing.

Ferries piled across the river, carrying provisions and clothing, everywhere and returning with injured. Such were carefully cared for in private homes in Guthrie.

Five hundred homes were swept away, 150 houses were wrecked and 20 stores were devastated, leaving 1,000 people homeless and half as many destitute. Thousands of dollars have been subscribed to aid the afflicted.

The damage along the Cimarron river east is very extensive and hundreds of farms have been devastated along Deep Fork in Lincoln county. Hundreds of men are at work rebuilding houses along the stream.

The damage to property will be in the neighborhood of $100,000, while that sustained in crops may equal or, perhaps, double that amount.

Firemen Rescued the Guests.

MILWAUKEE, April 30.—Fire has destroyed the Schmidt hotel, a four-story building at 123 Huron street. When the guests were awakened the fire had spread from the first to the second story and escape by the stairways was cut off. Firemen rescued all the inmates, 15 in number, with ladders. Some of the women were unconscious when found by the firemen.

The Pro-Fluent Will Be Invited.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 30.—Mayor F. P. Stoy, Commander Stahl of the New Jersey Grand Army, together with a distinguished delegation of local citizens, will journey to Washington May 5 with the object of extending a formal invitation to President McKinley to attend the annual encampment and reunion of veterans in this city in June.

Bribery Charge in Delaware.

DOVER, Del., April 30.—A decided sensation was created by the action of the house of representatives in appointing a committee to investigate the charge recently made that certain members of the body had attempted to extort money from persons applying for legislation as the price of their favorable votes.

Vetoed a Carlow Bill.

LANSING, Mich., April 30.—Governor Pingree has vetoed the Donovan carlaw bill which provided for the arrest of children allowed upon the streets after 9 p. m. The governor characterizes the act as interference by the state in matters of purely domestic concern.

Forest Fires in West Virginia.

MT. UNION, W. Va., April 30.—The forest fires have burned over an area of several miles and are still raging. Widespread destruction is feared. The whole population is fighting the element.

Denied by the Strikers.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 30.—The strike committee of the laborers who have stopped work on the university buildings deny that there has been any disorder.

Confederate Monument Unveiled.

DALLAS, April 30.—The Confederate monument, erected through the efforts of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Dallas, has been unveiled here.

No permanent results were reached, but the indications point to the selection of Senator Turpie of Indiana to succeed Senator Voorhees as a member of the committee on finance and of Senator Chilton of Texas to succeed Senator Hill on the judiciary committee.

The Republican committee has almost completed its assignment under the reorganization program. In addition to the changes heretofore announced, it has been determined that Senator Kyle shall return to his old place as chairman of the committee on education and labor and that Senator Carter shall become chairman of the census committee to succeed Senator Chandler, who goes to privileges and elections.

Under the new system the silver Republicans will hold the balance of power in 14 committees and the Populists in 11. All parties expect to be ready to have the reorganization consummated next week.

THE MISSION TO CUBA.

Calhoun Will Take Day's Place, if His Wife's Health Permits.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—W. J. Calhoun, the lawyer of Danville, Ill., who has been selected by President McKinley to represent the United States at the Spanish investigation into the death of Dr. Ruiz, the American dentist, alleged to have been murdered in a Cuban prison, has accepted the appointment conditional upon the health of his wife, who has been ill, becoming sufficiently improved to permit him to leave this country.

Mr. Calhoun is now in Illinois engaged in arranging his private affairs so as to permit him to go to Cuba, and, unless his wife's health compels him to decline the post, will return to Washington next week preparatory to sailing for Havana.

A DESOLATE SCENE.

Canadian Valley, O. T., a Chaos of Ruined Homes.

THE DEATH LIST NUMBERS 20.

Many Spent the Night Clinging to Trees For Life—Rescued When Day Dawned. Many of the Missing Turned Up Alive. Many Farms Devastated.

GUTHRIE, O. T., April 30.—Heroic efforts have been made in the flood stricken valley of the Cottonwood river toward the rescue of those unfortunates whose lives were still endangered, and for the relief of the hundreds of destitute and hungry. It seems a certainty that the loss of life in the deluge will not exceed 20.

Many of the missing people, supposed to have been drowned, have been found clinging to bushes or driftwood down the stream, on the west bluffs, or scattered in farmhouses for miles.

Daylight found dozens of people still clinging to trees, overturned houses or timbers in perilous positions, which they had sustained all during the weary night. For miles along the scene of devastation 1,500 people homeless, half ill from exposure and hunger, passed a miserable night, and morning found most of them too weak to give much assistance either to themselves or others. The scene in the flood-swept district was one of desolation. The river fell rapidly during the night, and when the sun rose the extent of the damage done to property could be seen.

There was a confused mass of debris and overturned and demolished houses scattered over the valley. The banks were littered with the dead carcasses of farm animals. Whole blocks, where steep a home in nearly every lot, were stripped, and huge trees torn up by their roots were scattered everywhere.

Men had been put to work in lumberyards constructing boats, and dawn witnessed a dozen craft darting out from all directions to the rescue of the unfortunates. The work of the raftsmen proved most effective, and one by one the people were transported from their perilous positions to places of safety on land. Every house, drift pile and tree was closely examined in search of the dead. The family of Wesley McGill, reported yesterday as drowned, was found safe. The only bodies found were those of Mrs. Fannie Ruffin and five children, all locked in a pile of driftwood. Those, with George Owen, the butcher, drowned while rescuing others, Frank Myers, Mrs. Jane Watt, Mrs. Francis Moore, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Dennis and child and Mrs. Watson are the only identified dead, though many are still missing.

Ferries piled across the river, carrying provisions and clothing, everywhere and returning with injured. Such were carefully cared for in private homes in Guthrie.

Five hundred homes were swept away, 150 houses were wrecked and 20 stores were devastated, leaving 1,000 people homeless and half as many destitute. Thousands of dollars have been subscribed to aid the afflicted.

The damage along the Cimarron river east is very extensive and hundreds of farms have been devastated along Deep Fork in Lincoln county. Hundreds of men are at work rebuilding houses along the stream.

The damage to property will be in the neighborhood of $100,000, while that sustained in crops may equal or, perhaps, double that amount.

Firemen Rescued the Guests.

MILWAUKEE, April 30.—Fire has destroyed the Schmidt hotel, a four-story building at 123 Huron street. When the guests were awakened the fire had spread from the first to the second story and escape by the stairways was cut off. Firemen rescued all the inmates, 15 in number, with ladders. Some of the women were unconscious when found by the firemen.

The President Will Be Invited.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 30.—Mayor F. P. Story, Commander Stahl of the New Jersey Grand Army, together with a distinguished delegation of local citizens, will journey to Washington May 5 with the object of extending a formal invitation to President McKinley to attend the annual encampment and reunion of veterans in this city in June.

Bribery Charge in Delaware.

DOVER, Del., April 30.—A decided sensation was created by the action of the house of representatives in appointing a committee to investigate the charge recently made that certain members of the body had attempted to extort money from persons applying for legislation as the price of their favorable votes.

Voted a Curfew Bill.

LANSING, Mich., April 30.—Governor Pingree has vetoed the Donovan curfew bill which provided for the arrest of children allowed upon the streets after 9 p. m. The governor characterizes the act as interference by the state in matters of purely domestic concern.

Forest Fires in West Virginia.

MT. UNION, W. Va., April 30.—The forest fires have burned over an area of several miles and are still raging. Widespread destruction is feared. The whole population is fighting the element.

Denied by the Strikers.

PRINCETON, N. J., April 30.—The strike committee of the laborers who have stopped work on the university buildings deny that there has been any disorder.

Confederate Monument Unveiled.

DALLAS, April 30.—The Confederate monument, erected through the efforts of the Daughters of the Confederacy of Dallas, has been unveiled here.

Died From a Spider's Bite.

BALTIMORE, April 30.—George H. Porter, Jr., aged 17 years, has died from blood poisoning said to have resulted from the bite of a spider.

Bank Examiner in Charge.

HUTCHINSON, Kan., April 30.—State Bank Examiner Brundenthal has taken charge of the bank of Hutchinson, a private concern.

THE GREEKS BESIEGED.

Turks Now Making an Attack on Pharsalos.

THE POWERS WILL SAVE GREECE.

Even Germany Determined to Interfere Whether Greece Asks It or Not—A New Cabinet Formed at Athens—Demands of the Sultan.

LONDON, April 30.—The Athens correspondent of The Standard says: "The Turkish army or its advance guard has followed up the success before Larissa and has begun an attack in force on the Greek positions at Pharsalos."

LONDON, April 30.—A dispatch to The Daily Mail from Rome says that the powers will oppose, by force if necessary, the blockade or bombardment of Salonica, in view of the damage that would be done to foreign commerce. It is believed in Rome that the new Greek ministry will treat for peace, in the hope of preserving the territorial integrity of Greece.

All the talk now, says The Daily Mail's Berlin correspondent, is of the intervention of the powers. Even Germany wishes to save Greece from the consequences of defeat, and it is stated in Berlin official circles that the powers will intervene of their own initiative if Greece does not invite them.

According to a dispatch from Constantinople to The Lokalanzeiger the sultan will accept the following conditions as the basis for peace:

The withdrawal of the Greek troops from Crete and the re-establishment of the frontier of 1831, Greece to be excluded from all the advantages of capitulations and to pay indemnity.

The Daily Mail's correspondent says the news from Greece continues alarming and he understands that a Russian ship is lying at Piraeus, the port of Athens, ready to embark the royal family.

The Daily Mail's correspondent at Paris has had an interview with the ambassador of one of the powers of the dreibund, who emphatically denied that "any accord" exists between the triple alliance and Turkey. The ambassador declared that not even Germany had entered into a treaty with the sultan.

ATHENS, April 30.—Following is the official list of the new cabinet ministers:

Premier and minister of marine—M. Ralli.
Minister of war—M. Tsamavos.
Minister of finance—M. Simopoulo.
Minister of education—M. Carapanos.
Minister of the interior—M. Teotaki.

Demetrius Ralli, the new premier and the minister of marine, was the leader of the opposition. He has been minister of justice and minister of interior and is well known throughout the country as an able lawyer and orator. He is 50 years old and studied at the Universities of Athens and Paris. Anagryios Simopoulo, the new minister of finance, is a deputy from Parnesis and, like the other members of the cabinet, has been a prominent member of the opposition. Several times he has been minister of justice.

Constantine Carapanos is a deputy from Arta, and one of the most distinguished financiers of Greece. This is the second time that he has been appointed to this department of the cabinet.

George Teotaki is a deputy from Corfu and was minister of the interior under Prime Minister Trikoupi. M. Tsamavos has long been associated with M. Ralli in his campaign against royalty.

M. Delyannis, who was deposed as premier said: "I cannot divulge the policy which I considered necessary. I can only say that the country would have emerged from its trial without loss of territory and could have obtained a recognition of the northern frontier by abandoning Crete according to the demands of the powers. The latter measure would have facilitated the task, inasmuch as the principle of Ottoman integrity would not have been impaired, while the peace of Europe would have been assured because of the recognition of the frontier line adjudged in the treaty of Berlin."

IS MRS. SHERIDAN ENGAGED?

Marshall Field Denies the Report White the Lady Refuses to Talk.

CHICAGO, April 30.—It is common talk in Chicago society circles that Mr. Marshall Field is engaged to the widow of the late General Philip H. Sheridan and the wedding will take place in the near future.

Mr. Field said that the story is untrue, without any foundation whatever. WASHINGTON, April 30.—The above dispatch was shown to Mrs. Sheridan, but she declined to make any statement in regard to the matter.

Reforms Signed For Cuba.

MADRID, April 30.—The queen regent at a cabinet meeting has signed a decree providing for the application of the agreed-upon reforms for the island of Cuba. Her majesty's action was due to the receipt of a cable message from Captain General Weyler announcing that the western part of the island is completely pacified.

A LITTLE CHILD DIED

Its Friends Depended on Faith to Heal It.

ONE LOVING COUPLE SEPARATED

Some of the Results of a Sentiment That Has Taken Possession of a Number of People in Wellsville—They Have Ideas of Their Own, and Scorn the World.

Wellsville has been earnestly talking for several months of a peculiar sentiment which recently appeared among the people. For the first few weeks nothing in particular was thought of it, but when it advanced to that point where children were allowed to suffer and die in the belief that some power more potent than that of modern medical science would bring about a cure any number of tongues began to wag, and wag they do until this very day, the subject being a favorite one for conversation with scores of persons.

Another feature is that it has affected the domestic life of more than one honest, hardworking man, and in one case it has reached that point where, forbearance having ceased to be anything of a virtue, he carried his case to a court whose power is recognized as being greater than that of the wife of his bosom, and there he hopes to find the relief he cannot find at home. The outcome of the struggle will be watched with interest.

No one pretends to know the source from which this feeling, belief, or whatever they may be pleased to call it, came, but the fact is plain that it has taken complete possession of a number of people and affected a great many others. They do not live on earth, and have nothing in common with ordinary people. Their world is beyond this, and they go beyond the boundary of ordinary argument in preaching its claims. They are missionaries, and never lose an opportunity to impress some one with the necessity of embracing their religious doctrine, and turning to the light as they think it shines and covers them in an effulgence of glory. At one time they formed a prominent part of one of Wellsville's most substantial churches, but the church feared their influence and they were gradually deprived of power until now some of them are scattered in the other churches, while not a few go each Sunday to East Liverpool. For a time they met at the home of one of their number at least once a week, but it is understood that these meetings have been discontinued, and there are to be no more.

The faith cure phase of the matter has long been known to exist, but it did not assume tangible form until one of the lady believers fell on the street and was dangerously hurt. The injury could have been healed with proper attention, but they depended upon their faith to bring about the desired result. They talked about it a great deal, and decided to wait until the power of their faith would do what they would not intrust to a doctor. They are still waiting. The lady is by no means well, and some of her friends now believe the injury has been neglected so long that it can never be repaired. At any rate they put this down as a failure of the believers to believe with force sufficient to act as they desired.

Another case that has caused no end of comment arose from the death of a little child some time ago. The parents and a great many of their friends were firm believers in the faith cure, and consequently exerted all their powers to make the little one well when they could no longer disguise the fact that it was ill. In spite of their services it grew very much worse, and nothing they could do would improve its condition. At length in despair a physician was called in. His first order was to clear the house of the people who had crowded in to lend their faith to that of the family in curing the child. The doctor didn't want that kind of assistance. His faith was placed principally in his own skill and the power of his medicine. He worked hard to save the life of the child, but it was too late, and the little one died.

The foundation for the divorce case mentioned above is said by parties thoroughly acquainted with the facts, to have originated in a meeting where the wife made some statements not at all in accordance with the beliefs of the husband. They opened up to his astonished gaze something he had not observed in that light before, and filled him with a determination to have no more of it. How far he succeeded they do not tell, but there are any number of persons in Wellsville who believe that he never would have cause for complaint of any kind if his wife had not decided that she, like the others of this belief, were dead to the world in every sense, except so far as their actual physical being was concerned.

They have an excellent plan whereby their faith is bolstered up and kept from falling by the wayside as they go through life. Pamphlets containing the most wonderful stories of the most wonderful cures are distributed among them, and the contents are devoured with absorbing interest. These stories are well calculated to excite the most reasonable mind, being personal experiences of how some people were saved from death without the use of medicine. They are published in Columbia, S. C., and sold at so much per hundred.

No one pretends to know the source from which this feeling, belief, or whatever they may be pleased to call it, came, but the fact is plain that it has taken complete possession of a number of people and affected a great many others. They do not live on earth, and have nothing in common with ordinary people. Their world is beyond this, and they go beyond the boundary of ordinary argument in preaching its claims. They are missionaries, and never lose an opportunity to impress some one with the necessity of embracing their religious doctrine, and turning to the light as they think it shines and covers them in an effulgence of glory. At one time they formed a prominent part of one of Wellsville's most substantial churches, but the church feared their influence and they were gradually deprived of power until now some of them are scattered in the other churches, while not a few go each Sunday to East Liverpool. For a time they met at the home of one of their number at least once a week, but it is understood that these meetings have been discontinued, and there are to be no more.

The faith cure phase of the matter has long been known to exist, but it did not assume tangible form until one of the lady believers fell on the street and was dangerously hurt. The injury could have been healed with proper attention, but they depended upon their faith to bring about the desired result. They talked about it a great deal, and decided to wait until the power of their faith would do what they would not intrust to a doctor. They are still waiting. The lady is by no means well, and some of her friends now believe the injury has been neglected so long that it can never be repaired. At any rate they put this down as a failure of the believers to believe with force sufficient to act as they desired.

Another case that has caused no end of comment arose from the death of a little child some time ago. The parents and a great many of their friends were firm believers in the faith cure, and consequently exerted all their powers to make the little one well when they could no longer disguise the fact that it was ill. In spite of their services it grew very much worse, and nothing they could do would improve its condition. At length in despair a physician was called in. His first order was to clear the house of the people who had crowded in to lend their faith to that of the family in curing the child. The doctor didn't want that kind of assistance. His faith was placed principally in his own skill and the power of his medicine. He worked hard to save the life of the child, but it was too late, and the little one died.

The foundation for the divorce case mentioned above is said by parties thoroughly acquainted with the facts, to have originated in a meeting where the wife made some statements not at all in accordance with the beliefs of the husband. They opened up to his astonished gaze something he had not observed in that light before, and filled him with a determination to have no more of it. How far he succeeded they do not tell, but there are any number of persons in Wellsville who believe that he never would have cause for complaint of any kind if his wife had not decided that she, like the others of this belief, were due to the world in every sense, except so far as their actual physical being was concerned.

They have an excellent plan whereby their faith is bolstered up and kept from falling by the wayside as they go through life. Pamphlets containing the most wonderful stories of the most wonderful cures are distributed among them, and the contents are devoured with absorbing interest. These stories are well calculated to excite the most reasonable mind, being personal experiences of how some people were saved from death without the use of medicine. They are published in Columbia, S. C., and sold at so much per hundred.

bert, Niles; committee on laws, A. D.
Pollett, Marietta; W. A. Beecher,
Youngstown; W. L. Kendall, Cleveland; committee on council work, J. D.
Sawyer, Piqua; A. K. Tatem, Salem;
W. T. Joseph, Cincinnati.

The work of installing the new officers was then begun, the work being done by Deputy Supreme Regent H. A.
Boynton and Deputy Supreme Guide
F. S. Petter. The next convention will be held in Cleveland the last Wednesday in April, 1898.

A LIVELY TIME PROMISED.

Sons of the American Revolution Met In Cleveland Today.

CLEVELAND, April 30.—Between 100
and 150 delegates are attending the annual convention of the Sons of the American Revolution, which assembled here today. General Horace Porter of New York, the president general of the organization, who was expected to deliver the annual address, telegraphed that he could not be present, owing to other and more pressing engagements.

The most important question that will come before the convention is the proposed union with the rival organization known as the Sons of the Revolution. That subject is likely to be discussed in a vigorous way, and it is impossible to forecast the action.

Among the delegates who have already arrived are General J. C. Breckinridge of Washington, inspector general of the United States army, and Major G. D.
Todd of Louisville.

General Breckinridge is mentioned as the possible choice for president general during the ensuing year. In this connection it is asserted that the Ohio society will make a concerted move to have a very distinguished public man, whose name would not be divulged, selected for that place.

Loomis Marries Miss Mast.

SPRINGFIELD, O., April 30.—Miss
Elizabeth Mast and Mr. Francis B.
Loomis have been married at the residence of the bride's father here. A reception was held later at the Lagonda clubhouse. Miss Mast is a daughter of Hon. P. P. Mast, a well-known manufacturer and banker of Springfield.
Mr. Loomis was formerly state librarian of Ohio and under the Harrison administration was a consul in France. Later he was editor of the Cincinnati Tribune.

Navy Lieutenant Married.

CLEVELAND, April 30.—First Lieutenant Rufus H. Lane of the United States cruiser New York has been married to Miss Gertrude E. Mills at the home of her parents in Geneva, O.

A FATAL FREIGHT WRECK.

Engineer Killed on Wheeling and Lake Erie—Conductor's Narrow Escape.

WARRENTON, O., April 30.—A bad freight wreck occurred on the Wheeling and Lake Erie road, two miles west of this place. Two engines were drawing a train of 29 coal cars, westbound.
At Gardner's run bridge the engineer of the first engine felt the bridge giving way and threw the throttle, succeeding in getting across in safety. The second engine went through and was followed by 23 coal cars.

The engineer, James Deffenbaugh of Massillon, was instantly killed, his head
being crushed by the overturned locomotive. The fireman, Edward Mann of Massillon, lost his left leg and arm
broken, and was scalded, but will recover probably. The brakeman, Charles Keyser, was on the third car, and went into the creek, followed by 20 cars.
Almost miraculously, he escaped serious injury. He was thrown into the water
and nearly drowned, but succeeded in getting out in safety.

The conductor of the train was in the caboose and escaped in a remarkable manner. Feeling the jar of the wreck ahead he showed great presence
of mind by uncoupling the caboose and putting on the brakes. By this means
he succeeded in stopping the car almost
on the brink of the wreck. The property loss is considerable.

Leaves Still Hold Out.

NEW ORLEANS, April 30.—The river
is 19.3 and there are no new breaks.
An alarm came from Des Glaizes. The Atchafalaya district during the day.
There were two small breaks there, but they were promptly closed. There is a bad place in the lower portion of the city. It will be held, but not without
great trouble.

Spalding Held For Trial.

CHICAGO, April 30.—President Charles
W. Spalding of the defunct Globe Savings bank, who has been in jail since
last Saturday in default of bail, has
been arraigned to answer a charge of embezzlement. He waived examination and was held to the criminal
court. The cases of Cashier Churchill
and Vice President Avritt continued.

Banqueted Among the Ruins.

PITTSBURG, April 30.—A fire occurred
among the decorations in the Monongahela House banquet hall last night and the Americus club Grant memorial banquet was held among the ruins. A photographer's flashlight caused it.
Loss, $2,000. Senators Wellington and
Mason were among the speakers.

Senator O. H. Platt Married.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Senator Orville H. Platt of Connecticut was married to Mrs. Jennie P. Hoyt of Upper Montclair, N. J.

The Weather.

Rain; decidedly colder; northerly
winds, brisk to high on the lakes.

D. M. OGILVIE & CO.

From the customers' standpoint that's the only right way to do business. Suppose we had the merchandise to buy, why should we favor one store more than another? What would we expect in return for our patronage? How could our confidence be best gained? These are questions we are constantly asking ourselves, we're trying to answer them over our counters in a way that will gain your business confidence and esteem.

Reliable goods, reasonable prices, courtesy, careful attention
to your every buying need are some of the ways by which we hope
to extend and increase our trade.

Dress Goods.

Special for Saturday and Monday.

Ten pieces of goods that we consider cheap at 40c per yard,
all new this season, 36 inches wide, they include checks in black and white, blue and white, brown and white, green and white,
also changeable effects, just the thing for skirts to wear with shirt
waists. Price for Saturday and Monday, 29c.

Take our word for it these are cheap and worth more than
ask for them.

Good Gloves

Have sold more kid gloves this spring than ever before. The reason is, we think because people can rely on our goods, as, when we buy a glove to retail at any particular price our aim is to get the best article that can be sold for that price.

Our line of dollar gloves is especially strong. It includes four button in white, cream, tan, brown, red, and black with white stitching.

A new thing for Saturday in gloves—black, with green, red or purple embroidery; price $1.25. Chamois gloves, good quality, 89c.

Wrappers.

Just new. Our 75c wrapper we think cannot be beaten. A good assortment of colors and all sizes. Better ones at $1, and at $1.25 we have a home made wrapper, best calico, good muslin lining, elastic in sleeves at wrist, extra wide skirts, and cheaper than
you can make them yourself, and just as well made as any one can make them. If in need of wrappers investigate and we think we can convince you that we have what you want in this line.

Shirt Waists.

More styles, better values, larger stock, and most complete selection than we've ever offered. We believe we have what you want in shirt waists. At least it will pay you to look through our stock before buying, for whether you want a cheap everyday waist
or a dress waist we have it. They are made of organdie, dimity, lawr, percale, and other materials suited for the purpose. Prices
all the way from 50c to $3.50. New line of misses shirt waists.
Three prices—50c, $1 and $1.25.

Ladies' Silk Waists.

A new lot of changeable glace silk, all colors, all sizes, at $2.50. You wonder how they can be produced so cheaply. India silk shirt waists, in plain black and plain blue, at $3.75.
Plain black India silk shirt waists; also shirt waists of India
silk, green blue and plain colors, with large white dots, and changeable novelty silk dress waists at $5. These are good values and worthy of your attention.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Priest, of Third street, is ill with consumption.

A car load of shrubbery arrived in the city today from the south.

Almost all the street cars are now equipped with new registers.

There was another street fakir in town last night. He did a small business.

"I am an eastern fishman." This is the cry of a fishman now in the city.

New fire escapes are being placed on the children's home at Alliance by a local man.

Twenty travelers alighted from the evening trains after they arrived in this place yesterday.

Fred Howard took a header in the Diamond last evening, and broke the handle bars of his bicycle.

The street sweeper was turned loose
on the principal streets this morning,
and did some very good work.

S. A. Myers, traveling passenger agent of the Union Pacific railroad, was the guest of Agent Hill last night.

George C. Thompson returned last night from a trip through the west in the interests of the Thompson pottery.

The high school is busily engaged preparing for commencement which takes place May 28. School closes on that day.

Chicken thieves have appeared in California hollow, and several residents have suffered because of their depredations.

It is estimated that over 250 pieces of baggage were handled at the depot yesterday. This is the largest day of the week.

A few drunks wandered around in Fourth street last night, and one had a narrow escape from being run down by a bicycle rider.

A party of fishermen, chaperoned by George Peach, yesterday made a haul of 17 fish in Beaver creek. They were of different varieties.

The tire of a front wheel of a dirt wagon came off at Market and Third streets, this morning, and scattered the contents over the street.

Mrs. Delia Hayes, of the Central school building corps of teachers, fell from her bicycle the other evening and severely sprained her ankle.

A number of Salem people declare
they saw the airship Wednesday night.
As yet the subject has not affected the imagination of anyone in this place.

A. H. Clark and H. E. Grosshans are in Wheeling, today, taking depositions
in the case of the Gerke Brewing company versus E. A. Abrams and others.

The police moved the loafers last night, and the streets while crowded with people were comparatively free
from crowds at favorite lounging places.

The social of the Eastern Star last evening was a decidedly pleasant event.
The attendance was not large, but all present spent a few hours delightfully.

The street car company have a number of men at work raising the tracks near the freight station. A new crossing is also being put in at the foot of Broadway.

An iron gutter crossing near the postoffice was loose last night, and a number of persons fell in consequence. No one was hurt, but complaints were heard on every hand.

The local dispenser of ancient history maintained its reputation last night by publishing news matter which appeared in the News Review Wednesday evening when it was news.

J. S. Billingsley, while working with a young colt at his farm in Negley, had his ankle badly sprained recently. It was swollen twice its size, but now has resumed its normal condition.

The merchants of Beaver and their friends have decided to picnic here some time in June, although the date will not be set until tomorrow. They expect to bring 5,000 people to the city.

Roy Colclough, while riding a bicycle, ran into a lady last evening, in Sixth street, just as she was getting off a street car. Neither was hurt, but the temper of the lady was ruffled somewhat.

The crowning of the statue of the Blessed Virgin will be observed by the children of the church of Immaculate Conception at Wellsville, Sunday evening. A large number from this city will hear the program.

A lady uptown has two chickens.
Yesterday she took from the coop three eggs, and now she is wondering whether one chicken laid two eggs in one day
or some neighbor's fowl presented her with the extra egg.

The wicked individual who strews the streets with tacks, and then stands innocently by and laughs at the unfortunate wheelmen caught in his ambush has again made his appearance, and several wheels were damaged last night. It's a pity the law cannot reach cheerful idiots
of that sort.

YOU CANNOT BE TOO CRITICAL

way and threw open the throttle, succeeding in getting across in safety. The second engine went through and was
followed by 23 coal cars.

The engineer, James Deffenbaugh of Massillon, was instantly killed, his head
being crushed by the overturned locomotive. The fireman, Edward Munn of Massillon, had his left leg and arm
broken, and was scalded, but will recover probably. The brakeman, Charles Keyser, was on the third car, and went into the creek, followed by 20 cars.
Almost miraculously, he escaped serious
injury. He was thrown into the water
and nearly drowned, but succeeded in
getting out in safety.

The conductor of the train was in the caboose and escaped in a remarkable manner. Feeling the jar of the wreck ahead he showed great presence
of mind by uncoupling the caboose and
putting on the brakes. By this means
he succeeded in stopping the car almost
on the brink of the wreck. The property loss is considerable.

Leaves Still Hold Out.

NEW ORLEANS, April 30.—The river
is 19.3 and there are no new breaks.
An alarm came from Des Glazes, in the Atchafalaya district during the day.
There were two small breaks there, but
they were promptly closed. There is a bad place in the lower portion of the
city. It will be held, but not without
great trouble.

Spalding Held For Trial.

CHICAGO, April 30.—President Charles
W. Spalding of the defunct Globe Savings bank, who has been in jail since
last Saturday in default of bail, has
been arraigned to answer a charge of
embezzlement. He waived examination and was held to the criminal
and Vice President Avritt continued.

Banqueted Among the Ruins.

PITTSBURGH, April 30.—A fire occurred
among the decorations in the Monongah-
ela House banquet hall last night and the Antierus club Grant memorial
banquet was held among the ruins. A
photographer's flashlight caused it.
Loss, $2,000. Senators Wellington and
Mason were among the speakers.

Senator O. H. Platt Married.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—Senator Orville H. Platt of Connecticut was married to Mrs. Jennie P. Hoyt of Upper
Montclair, N. J.

From the customers' standpoint that's the only right way to do business. Suppose we had the merchandise to buy, why should we favor one store more than another? What would we expect in return for our patronage? How could our confidence be best gained? These are questions we are constantly asking ourselves,
we're trying to answer them over our counters in a way that will
gain your business confidence and esteem.

Reliable goods, reasonable prices, courtesy, careful attention
to your every buying need are some of the ways by which we hope
to extend and increase our trade.

Dress Goods. Special for Saturday and Monday.

Ten pieces of goods that we consider cheap at 40c per yard,
all new this season, 36 inches wide, they include checks in black and white, blue and white, brown and white, green and white,
also changeable effects, just the thing for skirts to wear with shirt
waists. Price for Saturday and Monday, 29c.

Take our word for it these are cheap and worth more than we
ask for them.

Good Gloves

Have sold more kid gloves this spring than ever before. The reason is, we think because people can rely on our goods, as, when
we buy a glove to retail at any particular price our aim is to get the
best article that can be sold for that price.

Our line of dollar gloves is especially strong. It includes four button in white, cream, tan, brown, red, and black with white
stitching.

A new thing for Saturday in gloves—black, with green, red or purple embroidery; price $1.25. Chamois gloves, good quality, 89c.

Wrappers.

Just new. Our 75c wrapper we think cannot be beaten. A good assortment of colors and all sizes. Better ones at $1, and at $1.25 we have a home made wrapper, best calico, good muslin lining, elastic in sleeves at wrist, extra wide skirts, and cheaper than
you can make them yourself, and just as well made as any one can make them. If in need of wrappers investigate and we think we can convince you that we have what you want in this line.

Shirt Waists.

More styles, better values, larger stock, and most complete selection than we've ever offered. We believe we have what you want
in shirt waists. At least it will pay you to look through our stock before buying, for whether you want a cheap everyday waist
or a dress waist we have it. They are made of organdie, dimity, law, percale, and other materials suited for the purpose. Prices
all the way from 50c to $3.50. New line of misses shirt waists.
Three prices—50c, $1 and $1.25.

Ladies' Silk Waists.

A new lot of changeable glace silk, all colors, all sizes, at $2.50. You wonder how they can be produced so cheaply. India silk shirt waists, in plain black and plain blue, at $3.75.

Plain black India silk shirt waists; also shirt waists of India
silk, green blue and plain colors, with large white dots, and changeable novelty silk dress waists at $5. These are good values
and worthy of your attention.

TWO DIFFERENT TALES

Of the Condition of the Crockery Trade.

HOW IT IS SEEN IN NEW YORK

There Are Not Many Buyers In Town, and They Pretend to Think There Is No Hope of an Early Revival—Another and Brighter View In the West.

The delay of the tariff bill in the senate has brought out two opinions of the condition of the crockery trade. One view from the district in New York says that there is little hope of an early revival, and the other from Pittsburgh never saw the trade look so well.

"Business among crockery and glassware dealers continues dull, with few signs of an early revival," says the New York correspondent of China, Glass and Lamps. "There are not many buyers in town and orders by mail are not as numerous as might be desired. Still hopefulness generally prevails and, with the settlement of the tariff question, one way or another, there is likely to be increased activity among importers and manufacturers. Retailers of earthenware all over the country are reported as not being by any means over stocked and, under more favorable conditions, there is no doubt that orders from small dealers would be multiplied to the general advantage of the trade. In the big stores of the crockery and glassware district there is a wonderfully varied exhibition of wares this spring. The shapes and decorations of these goods are artistic and beautiful, and considering the intrinsic value of the articles, the prices rule exceedingly low. Competition has reduced figures to such an extent that, in some branches of the trade the profits realized are next to nothing."

The same paper in reviewing the trade for the week contains the following: "The pottery trade is now in better shape than for years past, and business in all departments is brisk enough to have already led to enlargements at several of the works. Dinner ware is in good demand, and those who have put new shapes and attractive decorations on the market have been receiving fine orders as a reward for their enterprise. Toilet ware and novelties, jardinières and specialties are in good demand, and prospects for a large trade in all lines of pottery have not been better for years."

A report direct from the potteries of this city would say that business has been very brisk, and a great many hands are at present employed. Every plant in town is in operation, and mail orders are in sufficient number to be gratifying. There was a period of depression a few days ago, but the trade seems to have again regained its equilibrium.

SPONGES ARE AWAY UP

Because of the Greek and Cuban Wars.

PRICES ARE STILL ADVANCING

Stocks Are Low, and Dealers Are Placing Orders In Anticipation of a Higher Figure—It Means a Great Deal of Money From the Pockets of Operative Potters.

The Greek and Cuban wars will have an effect upon the operative potters of this city in a way that was little imagined. B. S. Levin, representing one of the largest sponge importing houses in the country, was in the city this morning, and was interviewed by a reporter of the NEWS REVIEW. He said:

"The wars in these countries has had an effect on the sponge business that you would scarcely believe. The toilet sponges which are used in your potteries by the pressers come entirely from Greece, and they have since the war commenced advanced in price from 25 to 40 per cent, and are still on the rise, and it is hard to tell where they will stop. The sheep wool sponges which are used by the jiggermen come entirely from Cuba, and they have advanced 100 per cent, in fact the price of them is so high that they can scarcely be bought."

The gentleman here produced a letter from his house which he received this morning, and it in every way substantiated his statement. This means a great deal to the operative potters in the city, as there is no jiggerman or presser who is not compelled to use from one to three sponges at all times. The potters of the city have been watching the increase in price, and last week one firm placed an order for 20 cases of sponges.

Of the Condition of the Crockery Trade.

HOW IT IS SEEN IN NEW YORK

There Are Not Many Buyers in Town, and They Pretend to Think There Is No Hope of an Early Revival—Another and Brighter View in the West.

The delay of the tariff bill in the senate has brought out two opinions of the condition of the crockery trade. One view from the district in New York says that there is little hope of an early revival, and the other from Pittsburg never saw the trade look so well.

"Business among crockery and glassware dealers continues dull, with few signs of an early revival," says the New York correspondent of China, Glass and Lamps. "There are not many buyers in town and orders by mail are not as numerous as might be desired. Still hopefulness generally prevails and, with the settlement of the tariff question, one way or another, there is likely to be increased activity among importers and manufacturers. Retailers of earthenware all over the country are reported as not being by any means over stocked and, under more favorable conditions, there is no doubt that orders from small dealers would be multiplied to the general advantage of the trade. In the big stores of the crockery and glassware district there is a wonderfully varied exhibition of wares this spring. The shapes and decorations of these goods are artistic and beautiful, and considering the intrinsic value of the articles, the prices rule exceedingly low. Competition has reduced figures to such an extent that, in some branches of the trade the profits realized are next to nothing."

The same paper in reviewing the trade for the week contains the following: "The pottery trade is now in better shape than for years past, and business in all departments is brisk enough to have already led to enlargements at several of the works. Dinner ware is in good demand, and those who have put new shapes and attractive decorations on the market have been receiving fine orders as a reward for their enterprise. Toilet ware and novelties, jardiniere and specialties are in good demand, and prospects for a large trade in all lines of pottery have not been better for years."

A report direct from the potteries of this city would say that business has been very brisk, and a great many hands are at present employed. Every plant in town is in operation, and mail orders are in sufficient number to be gratifying. There was a period of depression a few days ago, but the trade seems to have again regained its equilibrium.

Because of the Greek and Cuban Wars.

Stocks Are Low, and Dealers Are Placing Orders in Anticipation of a Higher Figure—It Means a Great Deal of Money From the Pockets of Operative Potters.

The Greek and Cuban wars will have an effect upon the operative potters of this city in a way that was little imagined. B. S. Levin, representing one of the largest sponge importing houses in the country, was in the city this morning, and was interviewed by a reporter of the NEWS REVIEW. He said:

"The wars in these countries has had an effect on the sponge business that you would scarcely believe. The toilet sponges which are used in your potteries by the pressers come entirely from Greece, and they have since the war commenced advanced in price from 25 to 40 per cent, and are still on the rise, and it is hard to tell where they will stop. The sheep wool sponges which are used by the jiggermen come entirely from Cuba, and they have advanced 100 per cent, in fact the price of them is so high that they can scarcely be bought."

The gentleman here produced a letter from his house which he received this morning, and it in every way substantiated his statement. This means a great deal to the operative potters in the city, as there is not a jiggerman or presser who is not compelled to use from one to three sponges at all times. The potters of the city have been watching the increase in price, and last week one firm placed an order for 20 cases of sponges.
